United Methodist Church

November 10, 2019

Welcome from Pastor Bob

Whether you're a first time visitor or a long time part of our St. Paul family, I'm glad you've joined us today as we begin our new series. Generosity is at the center of God's heart, and over the next few weeks we're looking at what it means to live "The Generous Life."

The Heralds of Harmony concert is today. We still have tickets available, so pick yours up in the Connection Center after worship or purchase them at the door. The Heralds are amazing, award-winning singers, and they put on a great show. All the proceeds fund our St. Paul ministries, so not only do you get to an afternoon of wonderful music, but you're supporting St. Paul as well!

If you have a gift of compassion or caring for others, Stephen Ministry is a great way to serve. Take a look at page 4 of this bulletin for more about Stephen Ministry, or visit the table outside to talk to current Stephen Ministers about what this ministry does and what being part of it has meant to them.

You can find more information about all our upcoming events in this bulletin, on our website - stpaulumc.org, on our Facebook or download our free app. I'm so glad you're part of St. Paul and the work we're doing for the Lord!

SERMON NOTES

10:30 AM WORSHIP

A typical 10:30 a.m. worship at St. Paul lasts about an hour. Worship is filled with current Christian music from our praise band. You are invited to sing along with the words on the screens or worship as the spirit leads you. You'll notice there is a time in our worship to give financially. This is how we support the ministries and missions of our church. If you're visiting us today there is no pressure for you to contribute. We hope you experience the love of God here today!

Become a Stephen Minister

Would you like to be part of a ministry that makes a real difference in others' lives when they need it most, and also makes a difference in your own? Stephen Ministers are trained to listen to, care for, and walk with those going through difficult times in life. They provide one-to-one care and meet with the person they are helping once a week to listen, encourage, and pray. If you have the gift of faith, mercy, encouragement or caring, you could be a great Stephen Minister!

We have a new Stephen Minister training class beginning in January, so if you are interested in becoming a Stephen Minister, now is the time to sign up. You can visit the table this Sunday to speak to current Stephen Ministers about this life-changing ministry. You're also invited to attend the Meet and Greet event next Sunday, Nov. 17 at 11:45 a.m. in Room 201 of the CLEC.

Making a 2020 Commitment

Over the next few weeks we'll be talking about what it means to live "The Generous Life" as Christ followers and as a local church. Each year we ask you to make a giving commitment for the following year. This is a vital tool for us as we plan the ministries and budget of the church, but it is also an important act of worship and commitment for all of us who are part of this church. We hope you will take some time to pray over your commitment, to ask yourself what it means to live "The Generous Life" and to let God lead you.

We will dedicate the commitment cards during worship on Sunday, Nov. 24. Commitment Cards are available in the pews or the Connection Center. You can also make your commitment on our website: stpaulumc.org or through the St. Paul app. Thank you for your gifts and for your commitment to St. Paul and the work we're doing for God's kingdom!

  stpaul_lighthouse

For most of us, when we hear the word "worship," we think about singing songs at church. But could there be more to worship than just music and words on a screen? In this series, we'll find out what it looks like to worship God with our whole lives. As we do, we'll see that when we find the right rhythm to our worship, we'll also find ourselves walking in better rhythm with the God we're worshipping.

TONIGHT: You can worship God with your talent.

Middle school and high school students are invited to join us tonight for group games, exciting crowd breakers, passionate worship, biblical teaching, and a chance to connect with others through Small Groups. The group meets in the Mariposa Café, in the Christian Life Enrichment Center at 5:30 p.m. for dinner, then branches out depending on activities. Time together ends at 8 p.m. Dinner is $3. Register for dinner online in advance: stpaulumc.org.

If you are interested in serving at Jumpstart in any of these ways, fill out the Connect Card or contact Alison Van Duyne at alison.v@stpaulumc.org or 727-584-8165 x234.

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Parker Johnson and Savannah Opsahl

Both Sav and Parker have been serving with our Children's Ministry for years. They are awesome with the kids and never afraid to get their hands, or faces, dirty as you can see pictured at right. Not only do they serve on Sundays, but they help with Wednesday Worship Arts as well! They handed out candy from the Mario Bros. car at this year's Patch Bash Trunk or Treat. And they often serve with Student Ministry as well! Thanks for your dedication to our children and students, Parker and Savannah!

Help with Live Streaming

We recently received this note from a 9 AM live stream viewer, thanking us for streaming our worship. There are many people like her who rely on our live stream for worship each week.

"Thank you and the church for being faithful each Sunday with singing and worshiping. I certainly enjoy each service."

For our livestream ministry to continue, we need people to help make it possible, especially at 9 AM. No experience is required, we will teach you and direct you in using the camera.

Good News

Thank You from Southside Soccer

As we wrap up our first season at St. Paul UMC, we wanted to thank you for everything you have done for us. The kids are having a GREAT time! We are also proud that we serve at least 3 special needs kids and that they are also enjoying the league and feeling accepted. For many of the parents, this is the only soccer league they can afford and they constantly thank us. For us, it is truly a mission, and we are loving it. So we want to thank YOU very much!
