SMILE MAKERS

God has his hand on our Smile Makers ministry and has helped them exceed every goal they've set as they find new people to share smiles with. The initial goal for the ministry was 100 cards per month. In October alone 766 cards were written! Prayer Shawl has also been helping Smile Makers by making 2,500 mini prayer squares that are sent to nursing home residents and members of our military. Want to bring a smile to the face of someone who is lonely? Or support our military, fire fighters and others who serve? All it takes is writing personal notes of encouragement! Email us at church@stpaulumc.org or call the office (584-8165) and we can help you become part of this ministry. We also accept unused card donations of any type. Just drop them in the bin on Sundays!

PRAYER SHAWL

Prayer Shawl touches people all over our country, and we wanted to share one special story about a ten year old boy who lives in Virginia. His teacher asked our Prayer Shawl Ministry to make him a shawl because he has been struggling lately. His teacher told us after he opened the package with his very own shawl, in his favorite color of red, his exact words were, "This is the best day ever!" He started to write a thank you note, and typed a little plus sign that he said was a cross. It says, "+ for God." How sweet is that? Our Prayer Shawl Ministry made a difference for this boy, and we are so grateful that this ministry is able to offer comfort, hope and love to so many. Thank you to all our Prayer Shawl Ministry knitters and crocheters for sharing your talents and your prayers! If you're interested in being a part of this ministry, contact us! You can also help, even if you're not a knitter, by donating yarn or making a donation to the church and marking it for Prayer Shawl.

CARPENTER'S SHOP

Many of the doll beds made by our Carpenter's Shop found new homes during our Christmas for Pinellas event. If you'd like to help make wooden toys for kids, drop by the Druid campus (2039 Druid Rd) Mon-Thurs 8 AM to 12 PM and on the first Saturday of each month.
